

Test centre

Have your French knowledge and skills recognized.

The French evaluation test (known as TEF) is an international gold standard for measuring your French knowledge and skills for:

- Immigrating to Québec, in the case of the TEF Québec (TEFAQ)
- Immigrating to Canada, in the case of the TEF Canada
- Studying at the Université de Montréal, HEC Montréal or Polytechnique Montréal, in the case of the TEF Admission
- Studying at CEGEP, through the Service régional d'admission du Montréal métropolitain (SRAM), in the case of the TEF Admission to CEGEP

Information

Email: infolang@fep.umontreal.ca

Telephone: 514 343-6090

Toll-Free: 1 800 363-8876

Website: ecoledelangues.umontreal.ca

Excellence at the heart of Francophone culture

École de langues
Faculté de l'éducation permanente

Université
de Montréal

The University of Montreal and of the world.

Credit courses

Learn the basics of French or perfect your knowledge of the language.

General French – Oral and written Intensive and regular courses

- Language, communication and culture
- French oral comprehension
- Corrective phonetics
- Phonetics and oral practice
- Reading, writing and grammar

Specialty courses

- Professional communication
- French for business purposes
- Introduction to Quebec culture
- Language and cultures: comprehension and expression

Certificate in French as a second language

The École de langues offers a certificate of 30 university credits in French as a second language. The program can be paired with two other certificates in order to earn a cumulative bachelor's degree.

Non-credit courses tailored to your needs

- Preparation for the French exams of the professional orders
- French language and culture stay
- Customized training
- Sociocultural workshops
- Tutoring for professors

French immersion summer school

This program is designed for students who wish to combine the learning of French and the discovery of the Francophone culture in a bilingual city.

